

General Education Requirements (Effective Fall, 2016)
Student Learning Outcomes and Credit Hour Structure

Approved by NC A&T State University Faculty Senate April 26, 2016

| Student Learning Outcome  | Credit Hours |
|--|---------------------|
| Written Communication   | 6            |
| Mathematical, Logical, and Analytical Reasoning(at least one course with MATH prefix)   | 6            |
| Scientific Reasoning (at least one lab-based course)  | 7            |
| Social/Behavioral Sciences*   | 3            |
| Humanities/Fine Arts*   | 3            |
| Global Awareness*   | 3            |
| Knowledge of African-American Culture and History*  | 3            |
| * If a course meets requirements in two or more outcomes, the student has the option to use the course for one outcome and must select another course to fulfill the requirement for each outcome.   |                     |
| Student Success (to be met through courses offered by a department, school/college, or the Center for Academic Excellence)  | 1            |
| TOTAL CREDIT HOURS:   | 32           |
| Additional General Education Student Learning Outcomes To be infused throughout the curriculum (no credit hour requirement) and assessed at the program level: critical thinking, oral communication, ethical reasoning, and writing in the major. Special Note Regarding NC Community College Transfer Students transferring to NC A&amp;T State University with an AA or AS degree (or completing the general education core, even without an AA or AS degree) from a NC community college will have met all credit requirements for the NC A&amp;T State University general education curriculum. |                     |